Description

Blown glass ceremonial chalice

Murano first half of the twentieth century

Cobalt blue glass cup with painted grinding and decorations, edges and designs in pure gold.

The outside of the glass is made of colored glass,
the grinding brings to light the transparent bottom
glass.

Blown from a single block of glass and cable to the end of the stand.

The liquid inside then drops to fill also the lower part of the glass.

The golden decorations on the exterior in some places are no longer present.
