Chatelaine And Gold Watch, French Work From The 18th Century

10 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Width : 4,5

Height : 17

Description

Chatelaine three golds (green, pink and white) consisting of a fastener decorated with a medallion representing an altar dedicated to Love and surmounted by two hearts. At the foot of the altar, a dog symbolizing fidelity, musical instruments and two doves. This medallion is connected by three chains whose mesh is decorated with flower motifs to a central medallion decorated with a baluster vase with a floral composition and putto standing out against an amati gold background. A watch key, a seal and a cockerel movement watch hang from four of these chains. The watch case has fine radiant guilloche work suggesting the rays of the sun, and a decoration composed of an altar topped with a vase, a dog and trophies. The watch hands are set with small old-cut diamonds. This type of

Dealer

Ouaiss Antiquités Galerie des Arts
Object of vertu
Mobile : 0617 08 51 53

8 rue Miromesnil
Paris 75008

chatelaine was worn on the belt.Watch movement in working order signed MCI à Caen François Cauger, watchmaker active during the second half of the 18th century.Weight: 44g without the watch / 112g with the watch.Jurande hallmark: crowned R for 1780.Hallmark: ox head in straight profile, 1774-1780.Gold hallmark on the chatelaine: eagle's head.SEE ON OUR SITE