Description

This scene, probably from the 17th or 18th century, represents horsemen at the foot of a bridge. We have not found a signature but the drawing is of high quality, probably a handwriting. The frame is gold. We report folds, stains, pitting, the paper is curled, however this drawing remains in a generally presentable condition. Note friction and traces of wear of gilding on the frame. Sold uncleaned, plain, untouched. For the condition, please detail the photos. The photos are an integral part of the description.
