Description

Painting drawing from the 18th century representing a portrait of a young woman noted Lady Kilmorey on the back. Very interesting painting of very high quality entirely in the style of the English school of T Gainsborough. Note the creation in 1768 of the portrait of John Needmann Viscount of Kilmorey. The portrait of his wife is not yet known. Perhaps we are in the presence of one of his studies Work of high quality and great spontaneity with a baguette frame in 18th century gilded wood. Dimensions 48 by 57 cm. High quality framing with hand-made English school cartridge. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier. Fast shipping and certificate invoice possible.
