Description

Superb niellé silver watch, signed (Servan in Bordeaux) circa 1900 (Year in which it would have won the Grand Prix in Paris) Enamel dial with Arabic numerals, second hand at six o'clock. Gold-plated brass hands. (small chip much more visible on the screen than on the watch at the level of the second hand that I can possibly have restored) Gold-plated brass movement, with lever escapement, compensated balance, Breguet balance spring, striking of the hours, quarters and minutes on demand, by pressing the pusher at three o'clock. Beautiful niellé silver case with gilded monogram. Matching chain in nielloed silver and vermeil. Perfect condition revised. I remain at your disposal for any additional information or photos
