Description

Beautiful original engraving, representing a young girl with a strange look, in a no less mysterious posture.

A mixture of femininity and ambiguity, this character seems timeless.

We easily recognize the style of Léonor FINI, who has always had the desire to refer to the fantastic and to create disturbing characters. LEONOR FINI was born in 1908 in Buenos Aires, to Italian parents, and died in 1996 in Paris.

Surrealist painter of figures, portraits, theater sets, engraver, illustrator, designer...

She is listed on Bénézit which devotes an entire page to her.

Signature lower right in pencil in the margin.

Edition: 26/175
