

Diana, 17th Century

2 250 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 31 cm

Height : 39 cm

Description

The Greek goddess Artemis - called Diana by the Romans - was the daughter of Leto and Zeus, the supreme god. His twin brother was Apollo. As the goddess of the hunt, Artemis or Diana is often depicted with a bow and arrows. She lived in the forest, in the company of her companions, the nymphs. Painted on an oak panel, Anonymous, Netherlands, 17th century. Dimensions; 31cm x 39cm (51cm x 59cm with frame)

Dealer

Wilco de Keijzer

Art Anciens et Antiquités

Tel : +31 6 55115934

Hoge Gouwe 147

Le Gouda 2801