Description

Antique Bust Of Venus, 19th Century Souvenir Of The Grand Tour.

antique bust of Venus in marble with a beautiful old patina. a very sensual bust where Venus appears in the form of a young woman with her head slightly tilted to the left, her eyes half-closed, her chest bared and her hair tied back in a complicated manner.

very nice finesse in the sculpture dating from the first half of the 19th century probably a souvenir of the grand tour in Italy.

the pedestal in a mixture of black marble and sea green is later and is from the Napoleon III period.

some chips visible in the photos, particularly at the slightly worn nose.
