Description

Very attractive gilt bronze watch case with antique-style bust of a woman. It bears a monogram under the base: "HP" for Henri Picard (1831-1890), which is still partially visible, probably due to an old gilding. In very good condition, with magnificent chasing.

Dimensions Height 17.5 cm - Width 8.5 cm.

According to the Archives Nationales, Henri Picard was established at "6 rue Jarente" from 1831 to 1839, then at "10 rue de la Perle" from 1840 to 186. A prestigious 19th-century bronzemaker, he was renowned for casting and gilding high-quality decorative objects. He collaborated with designers such as Charles Perrault and Grault. He received commissions from important patrons, including Napoleon III,
