Description

COD. 10808 Beautiful French sculpture from the mid-20th century. Finely chiseled terracotta object depicting the bust of a nobleman with a wig, in eighteenth-century clothes, of excellent quality. Sculpture of great size and impact, complete with base glued to the bust during the 20th century. Base that has undergone a restoration (see photos), now solid and in good condition. Finished sculpture ideal for centerpieces to be placed in a living room or studio, for antique dealers, interior decorators and collectors. Object in beautiful patina that does not have stamps, brands or signatures. Overall in good state of conservation with some small signs of the time. As each of our items will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee as well as photographic documentation.
