

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Dupré, French Baroque Medal

2 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Victor Amédée I (1587-1637), Duke of Savoy in 1630

Christine de France (1606-1663), Duchess of Savoy in 1619

By Guillaume and Abraham Dupré

Diameter: 10.4 cm

Very fine casting

Gold plating rather flashy, probably later.

Obverse: Bust of the duke facing right, wearing a cuirass with broad lace collar covering the shoulders.

VICTOR AMADEVS DVX

SAB(AUDIAE).PRINC(IPES).PED(IMONTIS).

REX CIPR(I)

Victor Amédée, Duke of Savoy, Prince of

Dealer

ES Works of Art

Haute époque, antiquités

Mobile : 0677286074

sur rendez-vous

Paris 75018

Piedmont, King of Cyprus

Signature below the bust:

G(VILLEMVS).DVPRE F(ECIT) 1636, work of Guillaume Dupré 1636

Reverse: Bust of the duchess facing left, with hair tied in a bun held by a jewel with pearls, a small flower-adorned crown on her head. She wears a pearl necklace, earrings, and a brooch with baroque pearls in the neckline. Her dress has a collar folded over the shoulders, with piped lace.

CHRISTIA(NA).A FRANCIA DV-(CISS)A
SA(BAVDIAE).RE(GINA).CYP(RI)

Below the beginning of the legend, inside,
AB(RAHAMUS).DVPRE F(ECIT) 1635, work
of Abraham Dupré

Hybrid medal combining both spouses, with one side made by Guillaume Dupré and the other by his son Abraham.

Victor Amédée is the twelfth Duke of Savoy. He is the first to obtain the possibility of reclaiming the title of King of Cyprus held by his ancestors, thus making the House of Savoy royal. He lost his life in the unfortunate campaign he initiated in Milan.

Christine de France is the daughter of Henri IV and Marie de Médicis. She married Victor Amédée in 1619.