Description

Noël Canepa is a Provençal painter who mainly worked in the Marseillaise region in the years 1930-1960. An artist strongly influenced by the master Adolphe Monticelli, a well impastoed expressionist painting, where light plays an important role. It brings out the subtle nuances of the colors bringing the painting to life. Beautiful representation of the Provençal coast under the wind. Oil on panel signed, framed. Shipping possible everywhere.
