Side Table in Ebonized Wood with Dragons: A Treasure from the 19th Century

The side table in ebonized wood with dragons is a testament to the art and craftsmanship of the 19th century. This piece is more than just a piece of furniture; it represents a union of functionality and artistic symbolism, making it a valuable addition to any interior or antique collection.

Design and Details

The table features a robust structure in ebonized wood, with intricate details that capture the eye. The dragons, precisely and skillfully carved, decorate the sides, lending a sense of power and strength to the overall design. The contrast between the ebonized black and the wood's tones creates a stunning visual effect, highlighting the craftsmanship of the period.

In good general condition with a patina that attests to its age, the table measures 108 cm in height and 50 cm in width. This makes it ideal for placing in a living room, reading corner, or even a bedroom as a decorative element.

A Touch of History and Tradition

The use of dragons as a decorative element has deep cultural roots. Symbols of strength and wisdom, dragons are often associated with ancient legends and myths. This side table incorporates these symbols, adding a touch of history and tradition to its design. For enthusiasts of antique furniture, this piece represents a unique opportunity to own a piece of the past.

Versatility and Functionality

Beyond its aesthetic value, the table also offers excellent functionality. The surface is spacious enough to accommodate books, lamps, or other decorative items. Its height makes it ideal for use as a side table in various contexts. The robustness of the ebonized wood ensures long-lasting durability, making it a safe investment.
