John Andrew Perello on Nov. 30, 1963, in New York City, the self-taught artist developed his distinctive abstract and colorful style with dynamic brushstrokes, drips, and drawings of the city's architecture and infrastructure. Moving to Paris in 1987, JonOne began creating paintings on canvas and has exhibited his work at Kolly Gallery in Zurich, Magda Danysz Gallery in Shanghai, and Speerstra Gallery in Paris. In 2015, the artist decorated the entire outer shell of an Air France Boeing 777 airplane. He continues to live and work between New York and Paris.
