Description

Pair of beautiful Art-Nouveau period ewers in blown glass, handle and pedestal worked and hot glued.

The slightly gadrooned body has a very elongated ovoid shape, it is topped by a long neck whose upper edge worked with pliers forms a pouring spout. They rest on pedestals whose junction with the body is decorated with a ring. the moving handles have a hot-stamped flower motif at their lower attachments. The very bright green colored glasses are decorated with mistletoe decoration painted with gold and enamel.
