Description

Superb Makila made by a best worker in France, usual configuration for this type of cane with a slightly tormented wooden barrel and naturally decorated with climbing garlands. Handle covered in braided leather with ring in the middle ending in a ball section with brass part which bears the following markings: "gogor and saiari godzo jabeari." The handle unscrews to leave room for a metal tip with a long decorated brass ring. The ferrule is also classic in brass decorated with a sun, one, stylized leaves. It bears the following marking: "Anciart Begara Larressore best worker in France." Classic shaped metal ferrule for a Makila.
