19th Century Bronze Bulldog Head

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted metal

Description

Amazing bulldog head in nickel-plated sheet metal, sulphide eyes, opening jaw and curiously the ears on hinges extending away from the skull. Of very good quality and very expressive, this head must have hung on the wall or on a support, but I have no idea what it was used for. Probably part of a bar or board game. Diameter: 12 cm, Depth: 10 cm Weight: 670 gr
