very beautiful Persian rug features the shapes, patterns, colors of old Tabriz and Persian miniatures: ## In very good used condition, this beautiful collector's rug is made of wool of the finest quality. Persian rug incorporating the criteria of ancient Persian decorations, knotted with great finesse and good quality wool. This wool is the first wool of the lamb, it is taken under the belly and on the neck. Around 1880 - 1900 we can hardly imagine the immense work to create such a marvel. The quality of these Persian pieces is clear, the work is fine, precise and durable. The wool is soft, knotted beautifully and finely tight as these rugs always are. It reveals to us nuances full of contrasts, many colors. It is surrounded by a border of trees, bouquets of stylized flowers and birds. Traditional wool rug, comfortable and heavy duty. The nuances underline this learned floral design in the great tradition of Persian art which is also found in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian empire, but completely revised in beginning of the 20th century. Indeed, the trade in Persian carpets has existed for several centuries and the trade, European and American demand, means that the workshops comply with the requirements of the sponsors and those since the sixteenth century.
