Description

The Swan Saucière is a creation designed in 1925 by Christian Fjeringstad, a great Danish goldsmith. This creation presents a clever game in which the handle of the spoon serves as the neck and head of the animal. This artist contributes to renewing goldsmithing in the first third of the 20th century. It offers artisanal pieces of excellence that the Christofle house sometimes readapts to allow everyone to enjoy these elegant Art Deco creations.
