Wedding Kimono (uchikake) Japan Showa Period

3 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 199cm

Width : 132cm

Description

Embroidery of silk and gold and silver metallic ribbons. Some metal ribbon details are iridescent.

This Uchikake is a unique model created in a single copy, in fact the decoration is not composed of assembling pieces of fabric with repetitive decoration as most often, but the scene takes place without interruption. The elements represented are highly symbolic, we can admire the pairs of mandarin ducks (marital happiness), the cranes and peonies (immortality) the 8 treasures and many others. The quality is exceptional, beautiful elegant designs, good balance of colors, precise embroidery, tiny stitches embroidered, woven silk background. All these details that make the difference. The interior is red. The bottom is weighted. The state of conservation is excellent. 199x132cm. No
