Description

Set of six circular cobalt blue glass bowls. Italy, attributed to Murano. 20th century (circa 1950-1970). D_8 cm Very good overall condition. Refined accessories for mid-20th-century tableware, these small bowls or coasters in cobalt blue tinted glass added a touch of bright, elegant color to receptions. Produced in quantity by Murano glassmakers as well as by major European crystal manufacturers, they are characterized by the purity of their lines and the saturated intensity of their hue. Our set of six cobalt blue glass bowls, part of the tradition of 1950s-1970s table objects, testifies to the care devoted to everyday glassware, combining the sobriety of its form with the richness of its color.
