Description
-------------

Pair of light-footed Murano glass table lamps with alternating transparent and emerald green glass discs.

A brass spacer with a small lip at the bottom is placed between them.

The base has a diameter of 23cm, the discs 8.0cm, the discs are 4.0cm thick at the base and 2.5cm thick at the base.

The light grey silk shade from Deda measures 42cm x 27cm and is laminated in white on the inside.

The white lining allows the light to pass through the shade and the lamp emits more light.

The lamps have a modern and transparent effect and are very easy to integrate thanks to the elegant and neutral shade.

The light grey shade with its silk structure goes
