*Capodimonte porcelain is a porcelain produced by the factory of the same name established in 1743 in the hilly area of Capodimonte in Naples, under the aegis of Charles de Bourbon, king of Naples and future Charles III from Spain. With his wife, Queen Marie-Amélie, they established the Royal Manufacture of Capodimonte adjoining the Capodimonte Palace in Naples, a former royal summer residence. Thanks to this factory, the monarchs gave birth to one of the famous Italian
