

Wenceslas Hollar (1607, Prague - 1677, London). Pair Of Engravings. 17th Century.

600 EUR

Signature : Wenceslas Hollar

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Length : 34,5 cm

Height : 29,5 cm

Description

Wooden frame, black patinated (dimensions of the frames: 29.5 x 34.5 cm. Dimensions at sight of the engravings: 14 x 20 cm.

Small foxing. The stains are mainly in the margins.

Etching.

Title: six dogs hunting, exhibited at the Rijksmuseum).

Etching .

Title: Wild boar, deer, heron (exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum and the British Museum).

Wenceslas Hollar (1607, Prague - 1677, London) was a designer and engraver from Bohemia.

Hollar was, with Abraham Bosse, one of the best engravers of the 17th century, and made the etching technique known in England. He executed a multitude of drawings that are still

Dealer

Dupire et Kotek

Antiquités, tableaux, arts appliqués, vintage, objets de charme

Tel : 00 32 495 205 344

Mobile : 0032 474 26 22 88

Avenue de Broqueville 34

Bruxelles 1200

very popular due to the meticulousness of the descriptions and the precision of the line.