Description

Italian painting, oil on canvas from the 18th century

Saint Charles Borromeo adoring the cross.

The saint is depicted with his hands clasped in an attitude of prayer under the benevolent eyes of an angel who looks at his face and holds his pastoral staff

In front of him the cross with the dead Christ.

Below on the table an open breviary and a skull iconography of meditation on death and eternal life.

Painted on first canvas, good condition but it needs cleaning and some restoration
