

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Art Nouveau Dressing Table / Screen With Mirrors With Marquetry, 1901

7 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Length : 57

Width : 235

Height : 205

Description

Exceptional dressing / vanity polyptych folding screen (5 panels). Mahogany structure with inlays / marquetry of different essences with floral motifs. Copper handles, hinges and pulls. 5 panels including 3 with mirrors and 2 with drawers. In very good condition, some marks on the back of the mirrors. Art Nouveau, France, 1901 (date on the back of the central mirror). Attributed to Maison Krieger, founded in 1826 by the brothers Antoine and Nicolas Krieger, who settled in Paris in the Faubourg Saint-Antoine, a district of cabinetmakers. This family business produces both common furniture and luxury furniture. These are above all modern reinterpretations of the styles of Louis XIV, Regency, Louis XV, Transition, Louis XVI, Directory, Empire... Maison Krieger has been

Dealer

Le Voyageur Antiquités

Antiquités du XIXe et du XXe.

Mobile : 0652323428

L'Etang

Vézelay 89450

rewarded on several occasions, such as at the Universal Exhibitions of 1851 in London and 1855 in Paris. Even today, Krieger furniture is recognized for its quality of manufacture and elegance. Dimensions : Height 205cm Width 235cm (all open) Width 90cm (close) Depth 57cm.