PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Kachan Dabir In Silk -1880 Museum Piece

73 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 314

Width : 211

Description

Kachan Dabir carpet, of Persian origin, 1880 is distinguished by its rarity, its importance and its exceptional finesse. Coming from the imperial workshop of the Shah of Master Dabir at the end of the 19th century, this museum piece offers unrivaled quality. Density: With a density of approximately 11,000 knots per dm², the fineness of this rug is remarkable, illustrating extraordinary artisanal know-how. Technical characteristics: Made with silk velvet on silk foundations, including silk warps, weft and fringes, it demonstrates a refined and precious technique. Observations: In good general condition, this carpet retains remarkable freshness of colors and an exceptional state of conservation. Decor: This rug presents a poetic decor evoking the Earthly Paradise, inspired by Persian

Dealer

Galerie Buter
Antiquités et tapis rares
Tel : 06 17 57 43 54

85 rue des rosiers Marché Biron stand 124 allée 1
Saint-Ouen 93400

miniatures of the 16th and 17th centuries under the Safavid dynasty and Shah Abbas the First. The ivory field is decorated with a stylized oil lamp surrounded by polychrome flowers, multiple richly flowered trees of life, original rabbits, birds hanging and feeding their chicks in symmetry. Borders: Seven borders, including the main one in purple color, are dotted with cartouches inlaid with multi-colored stylized lions, rabbits and birds, surrounded by stylized flowers and foliage, adding to the decorative richness of this work of art. Dimensions: 314 x 211 cm