Description

Representation of a two-masted American ship. The name William is embroidered on a flag placed on the upper part of the second mast (probably the painter's name). A figure is on top of the first mast to gather the ropes. The second ship of the US fleet appears in the left background of the table. This is a rare representation of American ships. To restore, fragile fine pictorial layer.Dimensions:Width: 2 cmLength: 72 cmHeight: 47 cm
