Description
-------------

This vermeil ring is set with a large yellow amber cabochon, a sort of sinuous art nouveau vine winds around the bezel. A stone of summer and light, amber is a fossil resin that carries millennia of history. Symbol of eternity, it is considered a lucky stone. According to legend, the tears of the sisters of Phaethon (the son of Helios, the sun), who mourned their brother condemned by Zeus, fell into the sea and turned into golden amber. Supposed to possess magical powers, its virtues are numerous and very general. It is said that it is effective against misfortune, it serves to purify the body and helps it fight numerous illnesses. A symbol of eternal youth, the women of Ancient Rome wore it as jewelry on their hands. The hallmark struck on the ring is a neck brace head guaranteeing the rate of 800/000. In excellent
