Description

Very beautiful pendulum in matt and shiny gilded chased bronze, representing Ceres, goddess of agriculture, allegory of summer and harvest. The central terminal containing the silver dial is decorated with ears of wheat and roses, and topped with an amphora. On the right stands Ceres with a sheaf of wheat in her left hand and a sickle in her right hand. On the left side a rake and a flail. Everything is placed on a base richly decorated with vine branches resting on four ball feet. Empire Period - Restoration. This clock is in perfect presentation and working condition.
