

Preparatory Drawing Rodolphe Caillaux, Allegorical Subject With Cupids

300 EUR

Signature : Rodolphe Caillaux

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Length : 36 cm

Width : 80 cm

Description

Rodolphe Caillaux's studio legs allegorical drawing of Cupids on tracing paper. Born near Montmartre on November 11, 1904 and died in 1989, Rodolphe Caillaux is known for his landscape paintings, seascapes, portraits and genre scenes. Familiar with the Basque country which he often painted, he also created the Maurice Ravel medal for the Paris Mint. Museum collection: Pau, Algiers, Oran, Rodez, Saigon

Dealer

Galerie Aire Ona

XVIII,XIX and XX centuries antiques

Tel : 33 638722451

Hasparren 64240