Description

Superb tray in rosewood, walnut and chromed metal, circa 1930.

This very high quality piece has a harmonious sinuous line with contours underlined by chromed tubing, contrasting with the angular-edged grips, which nevertheless work perfectly together to give us this very beautiful tray with undeniable structure and aesthetic qualities.

This object is undoubtedly the work of a well-known artist-designer who we should take the time to identify.

In good condition (only minor signs of use).
