Description

Oil on canvas representing faceless characters, mainly women, one of whom is holding a pitchfork.

Entitled on the back "les Chouannes" Here are royalist insurgent women from Vendée or Breton with a view to defending the monarchy at the time of the revolution.

There reigns in this work a mysterious atmosphere, expressed with soft and tangy colors.

We can see a symbolic interpretation.

Symbolism of the fork: Like the crossroads, the fork is a crossing, a bifurcation and symbolizes the tendency towards differentiation of individualities and at the same time towards undifferentiation because the fork is always connected to the common branch. Ambivalent, it can bring together or separate. The graphic design
