

Austrian Bracket Clock Signed Paul Hartmann

1 500 EUR

Signature : Hartmann

Period : 18th century

Condition : Quelques manques

Material : Solid wood

Length : 29

Height : 60

Depth : 15

Description

This Viennese clock, dating back to the end of the eighteenth century, represents a classic example of the Viennese style of the time.

The case is made of fruitwood, with pierced details. Above the dial, there are the adjustments for the chime, as well as the opening for the false pendulum.

The movement features a richly engraved plate with plant motifs. It has an hour and quarter chime, and a verge escapement.

Dealer

Orologeria Aurili

Antique watchmaking workshop

Tel : +39066873578

via del Clementino 104

Rome 00186