Description

Beautiful old painting late 19th century, oil on canvas signed lower right J. Boisson (Alfred Jacques Boisson) representing a lively pastoral scene of a young undressed shepherd sitting on a rock, playing the flute (or Bombarde) for a young woman seated at his feet. In the back, a goat grazing on the leaves of a tree in an idealized landscape. Beautiful composition of a certain eroticism for this painter native of Nîmes, student of Cabanel and Gustave Moreau, who exhibited his works in the Montpellier region. Old restorations visible, in its beautiful gilded wood frame. Color merchant visible on the back on its original canvas All as is, see photos. Total dimensions: 77 cm x 58 cm, canvas 65 cm x 48 cm
