Description

Very beautiful oval earthenware planter, the body worked in relief of gadroons, the upper edge decorated with shell and foliage scrolls, it presents a decoration in the style of the Dutch decorations of the Delft factories, but here it is certainly a question of a piece from the La Villa du Rond factory in Bonnetable, in Sarthe (if you have a different opinion on this last subject, your clarification is welcome).

A very good quality earthenware, in very good condition, and which rings with a beautiful sound.
