Description

I offer you this screen, the fruit of the inventiveness of our sometimes eccentric British friends. It is a work from the end of the 19th century where chromo lithographic images invade the space. Decorating a screen put a severe test on the artistic qualities of mothers and young daughters of the English bourgeoisie, until Lord Byron said- one who also created a screen decoration. Some defects to appreciate in the photos. to leave as is or to restore with a little time, glue and some additional chromos...
