Description

Unquestionably, Bidjar remain the most resistant carpets!

Persian Bidjar rug in wool from the Iranian highlands, hand-knotted, 147 cm wide x 218 cm long, circa 1960 in very good condition.

The shaving of these wool rugs is so precise and so clean that the material is similar to silk giving the wool a beautiful shine and great softness.

Not far from Sanandaj, the region of finely knotted Senneh carpets, is the small town of Bijar which, with its surrounding villages, produces what are undoubtedly the heaviest and strongest carpets in Persia.

"Heavy and thick, Bijar rugs are difficult to handle but sturdy for eternity."

Our model has a classic decoration with a large cream medallion, flowered and knotted with clever interlacing, closed with four spandrels decorated with palmettes, a decoration also present on the Senneh.

The field presents in fresh and luminous shades a carpet of very elaborate stylized flowers, the finely knotted wine-colored borders, adorned with nuances, such as currant, indigo blue, and cream.....

Fringed finish short in good condition, the thick velvet is particularly soft, the edges are impeccable, finished with a small scarlet red braid. ## Note the soft and fresh colors of this rug which harmonize perfectly with the floral decor. A durable, quality rug, which with its colors can be placed anywhere in a house. Carpet with very high traffic volume as the knotting is dense and the wool is of high quality. Reinforcement strips sewn later under the edges to protect it.
