Description

This quality miniature in the style of Quentin de La Tour is from the 18th century, it represents a galleon and the entrance to a port, probably identifiable, characters in costume, sailors on the left. Note, a nice technique in the clouds, in the lighting and the colors. The gilded wooden frame is original, it is worn, we note some lack of gilding and traces of wear. As for the miniature, it remains fresh, note a stain at the top right. Our numerous photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For the condition, please detail the photos. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
