Description

Light-footed and stylish armchair in bamboo design. The eccentric design of the rear foot, almost like a loop, which then merges seamlessly into the armrest and flows out towards the front foot is ingenious. The delicate woven backrest makes the armchairs look good in any situation. Newly upholstered and covered with gray-green velvet by Pierre Frey. The matt and restrained cotton velvet goes very well with the golden-brown patina, the seams are stitched in gray. The seating comfort is very comfortable. There would be enough fabric left to make 2 loose cushions. Arm height: 66cm Width of the seat without armrest: 56cm Depth of the seat without frame: 58 cm Height of the armchair without top decoration: 95 cm
