

Figure Representing A Lady Near A Pierced Rock - China 18th Qianlong Period

720 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 16,4cm

Description

Porcelain figure representing a court lady, wearing a dress decorated with flowers, in her right hand she holds a fan. She stands in front of a pierced rock on which a bowl of fruit is placed.

The base is decorated in a green enamel. Her hair is tied and styled with decorated elements.

China 18th century

Qianlong period (1736-1795)

Height: 16.4cm

Length at base: 8.6cm

For a similar model, see:

- The Copeland Collection, Peabody Essex Museum, William Sargent, p.152

A small loss on the cut of fruit, a lack on the fan, otherwise good general condition.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

More photos and information on request.