Description

This secretary is made from very good quality mahogany, it dates from the beginning of the 19th century in the middle of the Empire period. It consists of four drawers fitted with cloverleaf locks, and a flap revealing a beautifully designed theater. The upper part of the theater shows a secret belt drawer. The top is made of Belgian black marble. The claw-shaped feet are of good quality. Note a small accident on the lower left corner of the flap. For more information, please feel free to contact us.
