Particular centrepiece, part of a post-war collection by Minghetti that was oriented towards unique and experimental pieces, different from the well-known decorative scores of the Minghetti company. The background and brushstrokes in metallic tones alternate with cool tones, even the shape looks at the productions of the best-known ceramists of nearby Faenza and the result is a curious large centrepiece. Measurements 70x35 h 14 cm approx. Signature on the bottom and excellent state of preservation.
