Description

Pair of large identical property corners in walnut. Each corner, arched in shape on the facade, opens with two dark doors made of flowerbed panels, molded around the perimeter and inside in the mass. These doors, mounted on iron hinges, are fitted with an authentic functional lock with rear entrances and key. The interior offers two fixed shelves. The belt as well as the lower crosspiece of these corners are decorated with semi-trimmed channels. The well-jointed tops, with a slight corbin beak, match the shape of each piece of furniture. These important corners which will adorn a residence, a large property or a castle will seduce with their dimensions and their high quality workmanship.  Period: 18th Century Excellent condition. Waxed finish. Additional photos available by clicking on the
