Description

Astonishing two-body Louis XV period buffet in solid cherry wood. Every detail is taken care of on this piece of furniture. The facade is finely carved and scrolled with leaf decorations. The panels are mounted flat. The feet are shell type. The low doors are arched as well as the facade of the plateau. The doors are fitted with large laced plugs. The iron keyholes are large and ornate. The locks and keys are original, and also the shelves with their cut-out fronts and their forged spring clasp. There is also a groove to prop up plates upright. This piece of furniture only needed a good cleaning. No major restoration was necessary. The interiors are cleaned and glazed. In short, an extraordinary buffet. Free shipping for mainland France. H236 P66 L155cm (cornice level)
