Description

This Syrian tray is a magnificent copper work of art, inlaid with silver, depicting the biblical story of Adam and Eve. The center of the board is decorated with a detailed scene of Adam and Eve near the tree of knowledge, with the serpent coiled around the tree. Floral designs and arabesques surround the central scene, creating a richly decorated setting. The meticulous work of the silver inlay on the copper gives this piece a precious and elegant look. The details of the scene and patterns are executed with great precision, demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship. This tray is not only a utilitarian object, but also a decorative collectible that tells an ancient story through its refined artistry.
