125 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Brass

Description

In an oval blackened wooden frame, with curved glass and brass rim, here is a very pretty Christ. (Probably) in brass, silvered, it is affixed to a mother-of-pearl cross. On the back, a calligraphed paper bears the words "offered to Noëlie Macaire, on the day of her departure by her companions, the children of Marie, Herblay, July 21, 1895". Small sheet metal part for fixing to the back.

Very good general condition, no break or flaw, just a little wear to the paper on the back. French working, dating from the second part of the 19th century.

Dimensions (frame): 19cm x 16cm
