Description

Beautiful Napoleon III table in blackened pear wood with brass inlays. This piece of furniture opens with a drawer whose crossbow-shaped front is decorated with two recessed brass nets. The perimeter is made up of scalloped and chiseled bronze rods. The same ornamentations are found on the sides and back. At the corners of this movement belt, geometric falls formed of flowers embellish the whole. The mahogany drawer opens with a finely chiseled bronze button. This small all-sided server is equipped with four turned legs holding two intermediate shelves. These are inlaid with a wide thread and a fine brass thread. Their movement rim is also surrounded by a chiseled baguette. The top of this piece of furniture is notable for its central composition representing a cartouche surrounded
