Description

Carriage from the 50s. Decoration of the top of store shelves for: butchers, bakeries, clothing, etc. The artisanal production offers impressive assembly work. It contrasts with the humility of established materials: plywood, fir and imitation leather. The shapes of the seats offer us fretwork and glued lamé bases. The doors are openwork and curved, all fitted to the frame. The bulk of the work lies in: the spoked wheels, with scrolled and beveled shock absorbers. The stairs are made of wood and iron rods that can be found on the luggage rack. And above all the pinnacle of detail is the side metal rod which activates the brakes. This rare piece given its fragility! Possible delivery not included in the price.
