Description

Bronze ring with engraved glass paste. The depiction at the top of the three crosses of Mount Golgotha is one of the symbolisms repeated in objects of Templar matrix. In the center parallel lines, another symbolism of the Holy Order, and at the bottom the Hexagram, which should represent the Commanderia to which the Knight belongs. The glass paste, of Islamic abstraction, can be a distinctive sign of an Arab Knight, subject to or linked to the Order of the Temple. Sicily XII-XIII century
